Wisdom pays.

Talkways is a simple and fun way to make stable and increasing part-time income. The amount of money you make depends on your background, knowledge, and accomplishments.

Broaden your horizons.

Talkways is an international networking service keeping your current skills sharp while helping you meet new people from all over the world and form new friendships.

"Many foreign students interested in applying to U.S. colleges ask me about the application process. By spending 30 minutes a day answering these questions on the web, I am able to make 100 dollars a week."

LILIANA URBAIN

Lewis & Clark '14

"Starting at 5 dollars an hour, I've worked up to 13 just by chatting on web-cam. It's also great to know that I'm helping someone get a higher quality of English education that they would not have access to otherwise."

"As a college student with a busy schedule, I've found a job that doesn't interfere with my studying. Talkways has helped me earn a significant amount of money."

OCT 10 Skype conversation with dudeismyname on Tuesday, May 2 from 10:30 to 11:00 Pacific time. Dudeismyname wants to talk about reading.

Talk to your student to determine which level of reading you think they ought to read from: beginner (grade school level), intermediate (more complicated wording, but with a basic vocabulary), or advanced (high school reading level). You can assign pages from your favorite book, Wikipedia, the news, or various webpages. The Internet is your limit! (Be advised, though, that users in China cannot access blogspot or wordpress, and you may have to copy-and-paste into a word document and send that via Skype.)
